Lunar New Year Celebration

Louisville, January 15, 2023.

Dear Dharma Friends,

We would like to invite you, your family, and friends to join our Lunar New Year celebration on:

Sunday, January 22 of 2023 starting from 10:00 AM at our center.

The Lunar New Year is one of the most significant observances in Asian cultures. According to the East Asian zodiac, this year belongs to the year of the Water Rabbit, which signifies patience, opportunity, peacefulness, and success. Also, this is the inspiring period that reminds us to let go of any mental negativity, enhance mental positivity, and aim for achieving physical, psychological, financial, and spiritual goals. Specifically, we can make optimistic New Year resolutions to aim for those goals by getting fit, getting better education and job, becoming more assertive, cost-effective, and environmental responsibilities, saving money, reducing debt and stress, quitting bad habits, volunteering to help others, strengthening any relationships, and developing a healthy spiritual life.

Besides, as there are various celebrations in different cultures around the world, Lunar New Year is all about praying and the community's festivity. Therefore, we would like to invite you (and your family) to join us in the New Year celebration at our center at the aforementioned date and time. We hope you, your family, and friends can attend this exceptional occasion. We will provide refreshment and have the youth performance afterward.

Happy Holidays and Best Wish to you and your family.

Sincerely,

Rev. Thich Hang Dat.
